

A Message from the Executive Director

When I think about what makes Piedmont Wind Symphony special, it always comes back to the people—our musicians, our audiences, and supporters like you. Live music has this incredible way of bringing joy, comfort, and connection, and I feel so fortunate that we get to share that with our community.

Your support truly makes the difference. Every rehearsal, every concert, every moment of inspiration on stage exists because you choose to believe in our mission. I'm deeply grateful for your generosity, and I'm excited about all that we can continue to build together. Thank you for helping us keep this music alive.
